Humour of Life.

After the black & white drawing by Cecil Aldin

"Bait the hook well, this fish will bite."—Much Ado about Nothing

POST CARD.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

Mrs. G. B. Satterlee,
422 Hawley Ave.,
Syracuse
N. Y.

C+FA 12 9

FOR POSTAGE, IN THE UNITED KINGDOM ONLY, THIS SPACE MAY BE USED FOR CORRESPONDENCE.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" Regd. Postcard Paper. "Humour of Life."

Dear Vick: I wonder where you are. Hope I'll see you soon. I'm [illegible] Don't know yet what I'll do. Council is Monday and may go to C. M. Monday evening. Will you write & tell me. I have cold coming on & can't [illegible] very quick. Recently [illegible] Christ- [illegible] If you will go to the [illegible] I'll [illegible] Will you write me [illegible] I feel worried [illegible] Hope you are well. Must say Ms Pulling [illegible] I guess you'll say Ms Pulling [illegible]